

The 2011 Tusayan Half Marathon will start and end at the National Geographic Visitor Center IMAX.

The course will start in the gravel parking lot on the north side of the IMAX. The start heads east but takes a sweeping turn to the left and exits the northwest corner of the gravel parking lot; heading North up the Arizona Trail/Greenway, turning the left/west on FR 328. The course continues down FR 328 through scenic Kaibab National Forest. At the junction with FR 328A bear right on FR 328A until the turn-around point. The course returns over the same path back to the National Geographic Visitor Center IMAX.

At no point does the Tusayan Half enter Grand Canyon National Park nor does it have any scenic overlooks of the Grand Canyon.
